CLEVELAND, July 19.—

The Washington Post, an administration paper, launches Roosevelt's vice presidential boom.

Henry Dyer was killed in Morgan county by a sawlog rolling over him.

Grasshoppers are ruining vegetation in the vicinity of Pratt, Kan.

John E. Swearingen of Edgefield, S. C., who was made totally blind by an accident when 7 years old, has graduated from the South Carolina college at the age of 20, after having made the highest record during the entire four years of any man since the founding of the college in the first part of this century. The faculty regard Mr. Swearingen as a wonder.

BLUEGRASS BRIDES.

The Draper Family Come to Kentucky for Their Wives.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The marriage of Lieut. Arthur Joy Draper, son of Ambassador William F. Draper to Miss Lillie Duncan Voorhes, of Lexington, Ky., has been set for September 1st. Gen. and Mrs. Draper are expected to be present. Gen. Draper started the Kentucky matrimonial epidemic in his family by marrying Miss Jessie Preston, twelve years ago. His brother, George Draper, married Miss Jessie Preston, a sister to the bride of Gen. Draper. The Preston women were daughters of the noted Gen. William Preston, residing at Lexington, and were far famed for beauty.

Gen. Draper being abroad when George Draper went to Kentucky to claim his bride, George Otis Draper, the oldest son of Gen. Draper, accompanied his uncle. George Otis was in turn captured by a Kentucky beauty in the person of Miss Lillie Duncan, the second daughter of Mayor Henry T. Duncan, of the city of Lexington. In less than six months George Otis was married to Miss Duncan. Arthur Joy accompanied his brother, and was his best man.

He remembers stepping on the front lawn of the Duncan home to kiss a playful child, the little rosy cheeked girl of Banker Voorhes, a cousin to his brother's bride. Last year he was with the girl's brother, Capt. Gordon Voorhes, fighting Spaniards in Porto Rico. When he returned home Miss Voorhes, now a blushing girl of nineteen, was at his brother's home visiting her cousin. It was a case of love at first sight.

The wedding will take place September 1st, at the Voorhes residence in Lexington, where there will be an assemblage of famous people from every part of the country.

BELL WAS HELD

Was Identified by Assistant Postmaster Fisher.

Will Be Tried Here in November Next—Now in Jail at Springfield.

Assistant Postmaster John Fisher and Postman Charles Holliday this morning returned from East St. Louis, where they went to testify against Jerry A. Bell, the Paducah negro in jail there charged with fraudulently collecting money from the postoffice here, on a money order in favor of J. A. Bell, white.

The officials identified him very readily as the same man to whom the letter was delivered, as well as the man who appeared at the postoffice, and ordered the order and collected the $10.

Bell, however, denied it all, and said he never saw any of them before and never collected a cent on a money order in his life.

He was held to answer and ordered to jail at Springfield, Ill., where he will remain until the next November term of court here unless he gives bail. He will then be tried before Judge Evans.

MADE FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Administrator J. M. Werten yesterday made a final settlement as administrator of the estate of Sabra Reynolds, colored. The woman was killed by a street car on August 8 last, and her administrator sued the company for $15,000, but recently compromised for $825. The attorneys fees amount to $223.25, court costs $184, administrator's fee $50. The balance, $259.55 was paid to the heirs, a husband and eight children.

Addie and Jessie Byrd, Mary and Hattie Bonds, Lucy Holloway, representing the Broadway M. E. church; Floyd Harris, Miss Janie Anderson and Rev. J. C. Wilson, representing the Trimble street M. E. church.

SMALL BLAZE.

The long brewers' strike at Chicago has been ended by a settlement.

NO ADDITIONAL

Board of Education Will Be Limited in Its Demands.

How Money Will Be Saved in Cities With Second Class.

A great many of the tax payers have been led to believe by those opposed to Paducah going into cities of the second class that it will cost the city about $10,000 a year more to pay expenses than under the present charter. This is not true.

Under the second class city charter, the board of education, which under the present charter can get any amount it demands not exceeding fifty cents on the $100—and it never asks for less than $100, which will save the city at least $10,000 a year and at the same time make the board more economical in its expenditures, and prevent the erection of $75,000 buildings that could probably be built for much less, and which, in addition, are not needed at present.

A CLOSE CALL

Mail Agent W. H. Linck Has a Very Narrow Escape.

Was in a Train That Turned Over Near St. Louis Yesterday Morning.

Mail Agent W. H. Linck, of Jefferson street, came in this morning a day behind time. He was extremely glad to get here at all, however, as he was on the flyer that was turned over on the Illinois Central yesterday morning and came near being killed. He was shaken up pretty badly, and received painful bruises, but was happy to get off so light. The fireman and another man, as reported yesterday, were killed.

Mr. Linck leaves St. Louis on the fast train, which overtakes the regular passenger due in Paducah at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, at Carbondale, Ill., and transfers the mail and agent to the regular passenger.

Mr. Linck was the agent and his train was turned over before it reached Carbondale and overtook the regular passenger on which he comes into Paducah every day. He and the mail accordingly did not reach Paducah until this morning. The cause of the wreck, it seems, was that the engine was too light for the train.

PLOT FOILED.

Convicts in the Penitentiary Plan to Escape, But Are Betrayed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 19.—A desperate plan, conceived by one of the most desperate convicts in the Frankfort penitentiary, to kill the guards and foreman in the shoe department, rob them of their arms and make a dash for liberty, failed yesterday. The leader, a Morgan county desperado, had with him eight others, and all serving life sentences for murder. There are 200 men employed in the shoe factory, and these, and a part of those in the chair shops, were to follow their dash for liberty out of the prison walls. The confederates had been working on their plans for weeks, and 12 o'clock Monday was the time set for them to do their bloody work.

They had secured knives, which they carried concealed about their bodies, and the ringing of the noon bell was to have been the signal for them to assault and kill Foreman Thomas, of the shoe factory, and Guards Spencer, Lane, Hunter, Higfield and Sipple, and after robbing them of their pistols and Winchester, to dash out of the rear gate, followed by the 200 men in that end of the big prison.

Twenty minutes before the appointed time Warden Lillard and several of his most trusted shoe men walked into the shoe department, heavily armed, and one by one, Brooks, Hatfield and their followers were told that they were wanted at the cell-house. The others were warned to stand in their tracks under pain of death, and the desperados, realizing that the officials knew what they were doing, took up their sullen march to the cellhouse, where they were searched and relieved of their knives and improvised weapons, which they expected to use with deadly effect.

The shoe factory, where the principal part of the plot was to have been carried out, is disconnected from the main part of the prison and is surrounded by a big wooden stockade. From the foot to this there is easy access to the street, and as only four or five guards are employed there, this department was well adapted to the carrying out of the desperate plans.

A strike at the Coal Creek and Jellico mines, near Knoxville, Tenn., seems imminent. There have been very serious mine strikes at these mines in the past.

San Salvador is in a state of siege because of revolutionary plotting.

The war department will pay no attention to the newspaper correspondents in the Philippines. London papers are especially vigorous in condemning the administration and commending the course of the correspondents.

OPENS TOMORROW

International Conference of Epworth Leaguers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 19.—The international conference of the Epworth league which opens tomorrow promises to be as big a religious demonstration as the most enthusiastic had anticipated. Several thousand enthusiastic young Methodists are already on the ground and train bearing thousands of others are on the way. Delegates are being assigned comfortable quarters as fast as they arrive. Among the notable visitors may be mentioned Bishop C. H. Fowler, General John B. Gordon, President Rogers of Northwestern university, Bishop Thoburn, of India, Bishop McChes, Bishop John F. Hurst of Washington, D. C., Bishop Fitzgerald of Nashville, Rev. G. J. Bond of Hall, and John Farson of Chicago. Headquarters were opened today for most of the state, territorial and provincial delegations. Among the state headquarters which presented, besides those of Indiana, were those of Illinois at Roberts Park M. E. church; Pennsylvania and West Virginia at Meridian street M. E. church; Michigan at the Second Presbyterian church; Indiana at the First Presbyterian church; Ohio at the Plymouth Congregational church and Iowa at the Edwin Ray M. E. church. The state capital building has been largely turned over by the state officials for the purposes of the convention and the house of representatives, the court rooms and chambers are being utilized as headquarters for department conferences and for correspondence rooms.

NEW OFFICE BUILDING

One of the Finest in the State to Be at Fourth and Broadway.

Friedman & Keller Will Erect It at Once—Thirty New Office Rooms in It.

Day by day some new enterprise or industry springs up to mark the progress of Paducah, and decidedly the most important building enterprise of the year will be the new office building to be erected at Fourth and Broadway within the next three months by Messrs. Jos. L. Friedman and John W. Keller, two of Paducah's best enterprising citizens.

The new building will take in the present Buffet, barber shop and Klein Bros cigar store, and the building just vacated by the Paducah Water company, on South Fourth street. It will be several stories high, and will be built of fine brick, with every modern improvement, including electric elevator, hot and cold water, toilet rooms, electric bells and speaking tubes, electric lights and every other modern convenience and improvement. The ground floor will be a model of perfection, but it is not yet given out by what it will be occupied. There will be about thirty office rooms in the building, and the plans and charts will be made public this week, and the contract let this week.

Work will probably have begun on the new building by the first of next week, and it will be finished as rapidly as possible. The gentlemen do not know what the approximate cost will be, but judge from the magnificent character of building they contemplate it will cost about $100,000 and more.

The office will be a convenience as well as an ornament, and will be a great credit to Paducah. As the plans are given out from time to time the Sun will give them to the public.

COLORED BAPTISTS.

Women's Convention Meets Here Tomorrow.

The Baptist Women's Educational convention, an organization among the colored people, will convene in this city Thursday morning at 10 o'clock with the First Ward Baptist church, on Harrison between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and will be in session four days. The work of the organization will be confined principally to the educational welfare of the denomination in this end of the state. Many able persons of the connection will be present, an excellent program has been prepared and a successful meeting is assured. Mrs. Francis Bailey, of Lexington, is the present president. Rev. W. E. Glover, pastor of the First Ward Baptist church, has made ample preparation for the entertainment of the delegates, many of whom will arrive today, some having come yesterday.

He left today for Chicago, and will not return to Paducah for several weeks perhaps. Capt. Dutt is preparing to build several new houses here.

GATHERING IN

Democrats Convening in Chicago to Hold a Pow-wow.

The National Committee Meets Tomorrow to Prepare for Next Year's Campaign.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 19.—The hotels are filling up with the names of prominent Democrats from all parts of the country who are gathering for the meeting tomorrow of the national committee and the one or two important political pow-wows that are scheduled to be held on the side. Prominent among those who have already arrived or who are expected to put in an appearance before tonight are Senator Tillman of South Carolina, A. W. McInnes, of Utah, William H. White, of Washington, and D. J. Canavan of Michigan, a lot of whom are down for addresses at the meeting to be held at the Auditorium tomorrow night.

Representatives of the Missouri Democracy are much in evidence. According to reports they bring with them a bona fide offer of $50,000 to go into the National Democratic campaign fund on condition that Kansas City is selected as the place for the national convention. To win out, however, the Missouri city must successfully buck against the claims of Denver, Chicago, Omaha, Pittsburg and one or two other cities, a lot of which are expected to have big delegations on hand provided with the wherewithal to contest for the convention.

Those who have arrived are exceedingly reticent as to the probable work of the committee meeting, but the opinion is generally vouchsafed that the committee will not take up matters of issues, policy, platform or candidates. Notwithstanding this the Ohio Valley Bimetallic League has sent a strong delegation which will use its utmost endeavors to have the committee place itself on record on the silver question.

M. P. DUNN DEAD.

Died Last Evening After a Very Lengthy Illness.

Mr. M. P. Dunn, aged 60 and a well known ship carpenter, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home 821 South Third street from a complication of diseases, after a several weeks' illness.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1899.

Bryan leaders may at the Democratic convention abolish the time-honored two-thirds rule in nominating candidates for president and vice president and resort to majority rule.

Two-thirds rule has been a sacred practice of Democrats since their first national convention, but of course what Alford now fears is that its maintenance may defeat Bryan's nomination and the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform. This implied fear is hardly consistent with Democratic boasts that Bryanism and silver sentiment are steadily increasing in popularity and strength in the Democracy.

Interior expansion is a subject this country may take up some day. It is generally known that there are 71,000,000 acres of now and, worthless land in the country which is subject to a state of highest cultivation and fertility through irrigation? The water which now annually runs to waste and causes great floods, government engineers say could be stored and used to reclaim these lands.

Poor Boston is again sorely afflicted, in addition to the grippiness, the sparrows, the termites, the big augur worms, the kissing bugs and the anti-exposition pests, the canker worms have now made their appearance in countless thousands. On Boston Common, people walking under trees are obliged to carry umbrellas.

Southern manufacturers are reported to have increased 60 per cent, faster than in the corresponding quarter of last year. Many southerners who voted for silver begin to see the error of the statement that the hum of industry could come only with free coinage.

It is not known that George Washington assassinated any of his commanding generals. It is about time to call the parallel between Washington and Aguinaldo an error of judgment.

Nearly fifty naval vessels are under construction in American dock yards including a number for foreign power.

The advocates of the Goebel ticket can only tell what Goebel has done, and this work, first and last, has been to oppress some enterprise in which, of course, he had no stock. By the by, Mr. Goebel is said to be worth a quarter of a million and that he made it all as a lawyer and in business, yet not once does it appear that he ever lent aid, notwithstanding his wealth, to a public enterprise. What profitable businesses he must have engaged in to have made so great a fortune in his life, he still being regarded a young man.

Mr. Carlisle, when he was an attorney in that great fraud, the Covington lottery scheme, didn't do a tenth as well as Mr. Goebel, and yet Carlisle was without a peer as a legal light. Mr. Goebel, is, however, only to be praised for his thrift, but the question will come up how did he do it, and why will he try to oppress—as his official record shows is the case—every public enterprise—those things which make possible and profitable the class of enterprises Mr. Goebel and others have found it worth their time to engage in—and leave others to foster them. Mr. Goebel's friends while applauding would do well also to go into the explanation business.

The Goebellites are calculating on winning many votes to their ticket through the inability of the average Democrat to split his ticket when he comes to vote. As the Louisville Times puts it, "The masses (no doubt such terms silent) never take two bites at a cherry" and it, therefore, thinks "the Kentucky election this year is going to be either a Democratic or a Republican landslide, taking with it head, hide, hoofs and horns."

Incidents of the late state Democratic convention continue to come to the front in spite of the efforts to keep them within the ranks of the faithful. There is first an explanation and then an incident, and it always takes the latter to make the former reliable. A few more incidents and perhaps the people will come to the conclusion that the state convention was a deal from start to finish; only that and nothing more.

It is becoming more and more known throughout the state that the ticket nominated at Lexington is one of the best ever presented to the suffrages of Kentuckians, and its election by an overwhelming majority will be the people's answer to the meanderings of Goebel and Goebellism.

The Democratic press has much to say about the "Tay, or mach, or" just to draw attention to it, is clear, from their old snarl and which did a job lately in Louisville.

A Tennessee contemporary has ceased considering the status of national politics long enough to make this wise remark: "If voters filed public offices with the same care and intelligence that they employed an attorney or business assistants there would be a revolution in the official rule of the country. Public office ought to be a public trust, but most generally it is made a private snarl." Here is enough truth, if not philosophy, to make a good rule for the people to adhere to if not a volume to read with profit.

COME AGAIN, MR. GOEBEL!

Lexington Herald: "Now that Mr. Goebel has spoken—now that he recognizes the necessity of public denial and explanation—he must go further and make a full explanation. More denial, however broad, and appears to Mr. Woodson are not sufficient, and will not be accepted by the tribunal to which Captain Stone appeared and at whose bar Mr. Goebel has now entered his appearance and made partial answer. Captain Stone did not content himself with a mere charge; he set out the time, the place, the circumstances and the substance of the conversation. The time was subsequent to the written agreement and therefore no plea of that written agreement is relevant; the place was not in any room, but at a designated part of the building in which the convention was; the matter discussed was not the temporary organization of the convention, but was days after that temporary organization had been affected; Mr. Woodson was not present and had not been the intermediary for this colloquy and therefore reference to conversations at which Mr. Woodson was present and concerning matters about which he was intermediary is not relevant; the subject is stated by Captain Stone and the sequence of the colloquy given, and the denial is a mere evasion; the language stated was not used, or that the conversation as reported did not occur. The Herald, therefore, repeats that Mr. Goebel will find it necessary to make further and fuller explanation. In the meantime other statements will be made which will assist all impartial judges to reach a fair judgment."

ELECTIONS THIS FALL

Iowa elects governor, state officers and legislature this fall. Kentucky and Ohio, governor and state officers; Maryland, governor and both houses of the legislature; Massachusetts, governor, state officers and both houses of the legislature; Nebraska, justices of the supreme court and two members of the board of regents of the state university; New Jersey, eight state senators and sixty members of the assembly; New York, six justices of the supreme court and 150 members of the legislature; Pennsylvania, state treasurer, two judges of the supreme court and one of the superior court; Virginia, secretary of state, treasurer and minor state officers.

TO THE POINT.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "If he prevails a Goebel party will be dominant in Kentucky and the Democratic party as heretofore conducted will be a thing of the past. There are strong elements against him. The sound money Democrats will not support him nor will those who realize that his election is a blow at the sovereignty of the citizen. The Stone men will not aid his betrayal and the Hardin men who were unseated and gagged will scarcely exert themselves to put their despoiler in the governor's chair. Kentucky Democrats can see that Goebellism is a most unscrupulous assault upon the honorable action of all parties alike. It is an unclean and abominable thing, and should be thrust out before it defiles Kentucky and works mischief not easily calculated."

Lexington Herald: "The secret history of the late Louisville convention is gradually being told by persons present and participating in its deliberations, and it will come out before the canvass ends. The Owen News, the Carlisle Mercury and other papers whose editors were delegates are compelled to justify to their readers their own action as delegates. And as the publications multiply the mass of testimony increases both in volume and importance and as each publication requires other publications the truth will gradually be made public."

Danville Advocate: "General Hardin, though defeated for the nomination, still retains the admiration and respect of every person who believes in honesty and fair dealing in politics as well as in everything else. The course pursued by him during the

GOEBEL SCHEME.

Hopes to Win by a Technicality in the Goebel Law.

Louisville Post, 12th: Captain J. K. Noand, a member of the firm of J. A. Shuttlesworth & Co., clothing manufacturers, at 607 West Main street, said today that he had a conversation with Senator George Faris, of Lancaster, a prominent Goebel worker, during which the latter expressed the scheme whereby Goebel hopes to be made governor.

According to Captain Noand, the conversation was as follows: The two met on the train after the Goebel bill was passed, and Captain Noand happened to say that Kentucky was a close state.

"Oh, no, things are different now," said Senator Faris, with a smile. "We do the voting now all by ourselves."

"But," said Captain Noand, "I understand that the election commissioners are men of character. How can you gain an election by this bill?"

"That is very simple," said Senator Faris. "There is an obscure clause in the bill that says all votes must be counted ten days after the election. Certain counties where the votes might be against us can easily be kept back ten days, and the election commissioners will not be required to do any dirty work to accomplish the desired end."

Captain Noand says that from what he learns out in the state this method will be used in many counties that promise to bring a heavy Republican vote.

BILLIOUS TIMES.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian: "Bill Goebel was nominated by the Democratic convention, of which Bill Sweeney failed to be chairman. Bill Ellis did more than any one man to prevent the counting in of Sweeney. Bill Stone was defeated and Bill Owens is still trying to tell from a point of view outside of the convention how it happened. Bill Haldeman has returned to the party and Bill Breckenridge is trying to do so. Bill Debe's convention at Lexington met and nominated Bill Taylor for governor. Bill Bradley refused to attend and other bills two numerous to mention are lining up on one side or the other."

A FEW FIGURES.

Scientists have succeeded in measuring the vibrations of sound, light, heat, electrical waves and many others with the announced result that the Roentgen ray vibrates 288,224,000,000,000 times a second; a photographic limit of the solar spectrum, 1,125,899,996,842,624 times; Green light, 562,949,953,421,312 times; infra red, photographic limit, 281,477,976,710,656 times; heat rays of solar spectrum, lowest direct-measure, 70, 368,744,177,664 times; audible vibrations, extreme upper limits, 32,768; music, highest note, 4,096; music, lowest note, 32; water surface waves of minimum velocity.

It is easy enough to say musical vibrations are 4,096 or that electrical oscillations are 67,108,864 a second, but who can tell his neighbor how many vibrations per second the Roentgen ray makes?

NEW MONEY ORDERS.

The new money order will be issued beginning September 15. It will be quite an improvement over those now in use in several respects. It will be of a much more convenient size and shape, not exceeding that of a bank check. The principal change will be the giving of a receipt, an exact fac simile of the order, which will be redeemed after a reasonable length of time in case of the loss of the original. The marginal coupons denoting the value of the order will be dispensed with.

GERMAN CHILDREN.

Dr. Arthur Macdonald, the special agent in the bureau of education, who has been conducting a series of experiments with the school children of Washington for the purpose of collecting statistics relating to characteristics of American boys and girls has received a report of a similar investigation recently concluded in Germany by the celebrated Professor Virchow. This expert's researches took in almost 10,000,000 children, and the results obtained are regarded as highly important and interesting by all those who are interested in such studies in this country. Out of 6,000,000 school children in Germany Virchow found that more than half belonged to the mixed type, a just one third being blondes and only about 14 per cent being brunettes. As might be expected in Germany more than two-thirds of the children had blonde hair, a rather curious fact, being that only one-fourth of 1 per cent had red hair. Virchow went into minute detail in his tables, classifying the children of all classes.

He found that of the children of government officials, or the well-to-do classes, less than 10 per cent were brunettes and one-third of all the German school children had grey eyes. This noted scientist says that the color of the skin, which stands in a certain relation with the color of hair and eyes, is an important characteristic in distinguishing races. Blonde and brown people follow one another in most places, and today only a few people are wholly blonde. It seems as if brunettes were increasing daily. The majority of children are born with blue eyes, but with very many the blue soon changes into a brown. This change begins in the first week of life, after two years the permanent color is in most cases determined. The change of color in the hair is much slower. The majority of children have blonde hair at birth. It becomes gradually dark, the same being more or less true of the skin.

TEA SALOONS.

The first tea saloon in New York has been opened for business. At one bar hot tea is served at 2 cents a cup with an additional charge of 1 cent for cream and sugar. At another bariced tea is sold at 1 cent a cup and tea punch at 2 cents. Shortly no doubt such fancy mixtures as tea cocktails, fizzes and sours will be sold at equally low prices to people who are afflicted with a thirst and tea will also be sold to meet the growler trade. The management of the saloon makes the announcement that anybody who will stop drinking liquor and will send to this saloon for tea instead will be accommodated, and an account in any savings bank will be started for them, the daily deposit to be the difference between the amount of money they have been paying for liquor and that which they pay for tea. With or without this attachment, it really looks as if these tea saloons ought to do more for the cause of temperance than anything hitherto undertaken in this line.

Observations ...at Random.

The mountaineer of Kentucky, West

Virginia and southward is deficient in the sense of humor says the Washington

Star. He takes life seriously, and it may be said, indeed, his credit he takes it frequently. Indeed, his widest reputation is as a shooter. It is not surprising to the outsider who is acquainted with life and its environments throughout the entire mountain region that the inhabitant is of a sober temperance. Still, there are individual instances of a sense of humor as bright as any would find in Ireland in a day's travel. On one occasional Kentucky school teacher proved the rule. Being interested in education, I never saw a country

school in operation during my wanderings through half a dozen counties that I did not have to talk with the teacher, and I invariably introduced myself by saying, "Well you are teaching the young idea how to shoot, are you?" "Limes, and afterwards received a serious reply in the affirmative. "That is to say, I always did with one exception. The exception was a young chap of about twenty, with the making of a popular congressman in his drawing speech and good natural shrewdness.

"No," he said, "I'm not. I don't have to. They're born that way.

"What I'm trying to teach them is how not to shoot."

Another time it was a school teacher,

but of a different kind, a kind of patristic humorist. I had ridden twenty miles along the banks of the Cumberland, a pretty shaded stream, by the way, and hadn't seen a fisherman, and by the time I met this man I had become curious, as well as tired, for the road was a very hard one to travel.

"Why don't some body fish in this stream?" I asked without many preliminaries.

"Ain't any fish," was the laconic

reply.

"Why not?" I asked in surprise.

"The man looked at me and my turn out with a real humorist's smile.

"If you could get out of this country,"

he said with a cross between a twinkle

and a tear in his eye, "as easy as a fish can, would you be here?"

As soon as possible after having been "kissed" by a kissing bug, place

a large piece of ham fat upon the spot and let it remain there for some time. The patient will experience relief at once, but the ham fat should not be taken off just then, as the poison in the "kiss" must be drawn out. The fat accomplishes this in about half an hour.

These rules do not apply to bites on the front porch when everybody else

has gone to bed.

Mr. Henry Tandy, of the News, has just received a letter from his brother,

Mr. Henry Tandy, who is fighting with the Tennessee boys in Manila.

He will be remembered by many Paducah people, having been here as a lieutenant in the Hopkinsville company during the '94 encampment.

The climate of Manila seems very agreeable to Mr. Tandy, as he has gained about 30 pounds in weight and has never missed a roll call since his arrival at the island. He enjoys life in the far west, but nevertheless

would like very much to see his "Old

Kentucky Home" again.

Children, as a rule, boast of a peculiar propensity for poking their tiny fingers into every hole they see,

and the smaller the hole the more eager they are to explore its depths.

Yesterday afternoon a small boy entered a downtown drug store and succeeded, by dint of hard work and a chair, in getting up to the top of the cigar case. The first thing that caught his eye was a pretty looking affair with a hole in the top of it.

The next thing in order was to poke

his finger into the hole, and the next to call a doctor. He had intruded on a patent cigar cutter, in which the end of a cigar is inserted and cut off by a spring blade. The end of his finger was artistically snuffed off,

but his curiosity was satisfied.

Commonplace things assume a humorous phase at certain times.

Yesterday a telegraph messenger boy was riding rapidly down the street towards headquarters. There is one reminiscent trait about the much lampooed messenger boy, and that is when he is moving he moves fast.

Like reformation and a stubborn mule,

however, he is hard to get started.

This particular boy had a pretty good start. He attempted to ride

across the wooden crossing in front of the office when the tire of his wheel

forced against the crack between two boards and his front wheel sank

to the bottom.

He took a graceful header and struck the side walk in a position that is easier imagined than described. Fortunately, he was only dazed, and as he arose he half smiled, half crept, as he quietly said to those who had run to pick him up, "Humph! I fell off, didn't I?"

The spectators were forced to admit that he did.

Another story is told on a drummer,

and may not be new, but it's along the same line.

The drummer was at a small station

waiting for a train. Presently a rumbling sound was heard in the distance,

punctuated again by a far off whistle

which announced the approach of the train. In a few minutes it shot past, leaving the drummer and his grips

just where they stood before, the drummer looking extremely surprised.

"Humph, uncle," he remarked to an old darkey who stood near by, "it didn't stop, did it?"

"Now, sah! didn't eben hesitate,

sah?" was the reply.

Corn that has remained hidden for thousands of years in the heart of an

Arkansas mountain, and which is declared by those who have examined it to be not less than 5,000 years old, has been discovered and planted, and the corn that has been raised from the plant is in the possession of the original owner of the recovered corn.

George Barnum, of Columbus, Neb.
Sometime ago a relative of Mr. Barnum, while wandering in a mountain cave near his home, found some ears of corn and ancient pottery. This pottery was submitted to archaeological experts, who declared that it was certainly 5,000 years old. The most interesting part of the find was that in one of the jars, hermetically sealed, several ears of corn were found. It occurred to the finder of the pottery
that it would be interesting to experiment with this corn, although no one entertained the hope that after such a lapse of time it could be made to grow. Mr. Barnum planted it in a corner of his farm land last June, and the result has been marvellous.

The corn proved to be giant maize.

In spite of the dry and unfavorable season it grew to a height of fifty feet,

the stalks measuring in circumference seven inches, with leaves five feet long. This was all the more surprising because their grain grows

from modern seed and planted near to that found in the cave shriveled and perished under the heat of the sun

the grains of corn are in all respects

like other corn, except that they are much larger, and are in color a dark chocolate.

Two darkeys were engaged yesterday morning in spreading newly unbedd gravel on the streets. They did not observe anyone near, and doubtless felt free to express themselves as they chose.

"Lasy, him," said one, as he straightened up with a chuckle and began hopping his forehead, "this heat stuff is mosely red sand, haht haht."

"Red sand?" was the deprecating

reply. "Red don't you bettah say!"

and they both beat over their work again, unaware of the presence of any one.

An unusual sight was witnessed on lower court street late yesterday afternoon. George Marshall is the name of a colored barber who had a pet

fox. He put Reynard and his cage out in the sun for a change, and the animal soon became overstimulated.

The blazing rays of old sol had poured down on him for some little time

and he finally began all sorts of queer antics and finally sank exhausted into the cage. He seemed to have a sun stroke, and his owner, on the verge of despair, knew of nothing else to do except apply the electric fan. It went in and brought it out, and set it near the dying animal's cage. The cooling breezes were inadequate to the demands of the occasion, however,

and although there was a large crowd

to witness the effect of an electric fan on a fox with a sun stroke,

the animal died.

The wreck on the Illinois Central at Lynsburg, Ill., yesterday, 33 miles from St. Louis, did not affect any of the trains on the divisions running into Paducah, as the place is on the main line.

The wreck resulted in the death of Fireman Thomas Jones and the injury of the following four passengers: A. J. Elfy, St. Louis, internally hurt; W. B. Wilson, Chicago, badly scalded; O. C. Cannon, St. Louis, scalded; Master Mechanic Beckwith, of the Illinois Central road, bruised.

The cause of the accident is unknown. The engine left the track, turning over sideways, and demolishing all the cars in the train. Engineer David McLaughlin, stuck to his post, but was not hurt.

Commissioner Ascraft Leaves This Afternoon.

U. S. National Park Commissioner J. H. Ascraft leaves this afternoon for Shiloh National Park, to meet the other commissioners and transact the regular routine of work.

He will probably be gone a couple of weeks. The other commissioners, Col. Cadle and Major Reed, are now there.

TREATMENT OF CAPITAL.

Capital in its legitimate sphere should be free and unhampered by unjust laws enacted to curtail its lawful and reasonable earnings.

It is capital that opens and operates our mines and quarries, builds our railroads and factories, constructs railroads and operates every enterprise that furnishes employment to labor.

No state, no city can prosper that habitually stands with knife in hand to cut the throat of capital. Once in a great while capital may be enticed into a community and then robbed under the guise of taxation or unjust discrimination, but that is something that is not likely to be repeated a second time in the same community.

An enterprise may be caught that way and be compelled to submit; but when it is caught on another enterprise is going to be caught in the same trap. Capital has a right to ask for fair treatment. If invested in a railroad enterprise, the coming of which is greeted with brass bands and the ringing of bells, it should be treated in the same spirit of fairness when it begins to earn something as when it could do nothing else than spend money.

Ed Colshaw, one of the clerks in the Buckeye State, came up on the Dick Fowler last night from Cairo and left for Nashville this afternoon by rail. He is in bad health and will remain with his parents in Nashville until he recovers.

That 11,000 ton boat mentioned by mistake yesterday is not in existence and a boat of such tonnage will never materialize on western waters. It was 1,100 tons. The boat referred to was the new War Eagle, just built and completed at Madison, Ind., and owned by the Eagle Packet Company of St. Louis.

The W. J. Cummings will leave for Tennessee river this afternoon at 5 o'clock. She has a good trip.

1033-2.

The change of Auditor West's office from Paducah to Louisville is not very popular with local railroad men, who would prefer that he remain in Paducah. The traveling auditor is one of the most popular officials.

Another Side.

A Few Things That Are Causing Wonder.

Since Mayor Lang has taken such a decided stand on the position of Paducah, as there is no funds especially provided for the purpose in the city, a few questions are suggested.

One is, was there a special fund levied for the big storm water sewer that is being built out between Broadway and Jefferson streets. If not, and there was none, out of what fund is it to be paid for, the cost of being nearly, if not exceeding, $1,000.

Another is, how did the city, when there was but $100 in the celebration fund, appropriate $250 for the rivers and harbors committee entertainment, $200 for the soldiers, and about $75 for the Cairo officials? And if it is not a fact that the mayor used his influence, in a legitimate way, of course, to have the council pay the above named amounts when he knew there was but $100 in the fund.

Another question is how he expected to have the railroad's property on the river front condemned and appraised when there was no special levy for paying the expenses incurred and how he expected to buy it after it was condemned, when there was no special levy to pay for that? These things are mentioned merely to show that if the mayor is serious in his stand on the second class city ordinance he will either have to abandon it or else admit that he is inconsistent.

A. M. E. CHURCH RALLY.

There will be a grand rally at Burk's Chapel, A. M. E. church, next Sunday by which the officers hope to be enabled to liquidate a indebtedness. There will be three sermons during the day, morning, afternoon and night, at each of which the pastor, Rev. J. H. Burks, will preach. All members are urgently requested to be present and contribute as liberally as they can. The public is also invited to come and help. Special notices have been prepared by the choir and the occasion will be extraordinary.
